- 0) the land alleged to be village land is not village land, shall declare that land to be general land.

(3) In making any determinations under subsection (2), a village adjudication committee or as the case may be an adjudication officer shall have regard and treat the rights of women and the rights of pastoralists to occupy or use or have interest in land not less favourably than the rights of men or agriculturalists to occupy or use or have interests in land.

(4) In determining whether occupations of land has been peaceable, open and uninterrupted-

(a) no account shall be taken of any order, declaration or scheme issued or made under the Town and Country Planning Ordinance, which purports to alter, amend or add to the incidents of any deemed right of occupancy or other right to occupy land of any person so as to render any aspect of that occupation unlawful-

(b) a person, occupying land in an urban or peri-urban area at the will or sufferance of or as a trespasser (relative to a person or organisation having a title to that land) but whose occupation is recognised and accepted as being in accordance with the customs of the community of which he is a part, shall be deemed to be in peaceable open and uninterrupted occupation of that land;

- (c) it shall not be necessary that occupation is continuous provided that when land is not occupied by a person or group of persons claiming peaceable, open and uninterrupted occupation of that land, it is not occupied by any other person or group of persons claiming

uninterrupted occupation.

(5) A village adjudication committee or an adjudication officer may record that two or more persons or groups of persons are co-occupiers and users of land, whether those persons or groups of persons have claimed to be co-occupiers or are disputing occupation or use of that land and where that determination is made, the committee or adjudication officer as the case may be, shall determine and record the nature, incidents and extent of that co-occupation and whether those persons and group of persons are joint occupiers or occupiers in common as provided for in Part XII of the Land Act, 1999 relating to co-occupancy whose right between themselves are governed by customary law.
